Summary: On June 13, 2001, Rose Johnson, Government Affairs Vice President of AT&T Communications of California, Inc. (AT&T), met with Jonathan Lakritz, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, in San Francisco. Also present was Bob Kargoll, Regulatory Director of AT&T. Written material (attached to the notice) was used. Johnson explained why the Commission should reduce Pacific Bell's unbundled network element (UNE) switching prices to a level equal to the prices SBC has proposed in Illinois. Johnson further explained that SBC's withdrawal of its Missouri 271 application before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) demonstrated that SBC's California UNE prices, which are significantly higher than its Missouri UNE prices, would not be viewed by the FCC as compliant with the Telecommunications Act.

Summary: On June 14, 2001, Stephen Gunn, Vice President-Operations, Working Assets Long Distance (Working Assets), met with Tom Bateman, Executive Director of the California Communities Dispute Service, acting as an assistant to Cmmr. Brown, in San Francisco. Also present were Robert Wullenjohn, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, and Theresa Cabral, counsel for Working Assets. Gunn described Working Assets' inability to compete in the local market as a reseller because the wholesale discount is too small to provide profitable margins. Gunn cautioned that the Commission must look beyond unbundled network element pricing and provisioning issues to concerns about Pacific Bell's market power in the local market and how it will be able to leverage that power if it is authorized to enter the long distance market. Gunn explained that if Pacific Bell is permitted into the long distance market without appropriate safeguards and before the local market is fully opened to competition, Pacific Bell may be able to harm the long distance market as well as constrain the competitive local market in California.

Summary: On June 14, 2001, Robert McLennan, attorney for Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), had a telephone conversation with ALJ Allen. McLennan explained that PG&E was uncertain whether the Commission in decision D01-06-010, increasing the California Alternative Rates for Energy discount, intended for the increased discount to become effective as of the date of the decision, or as the first date of the start of the billing cycle, which for PG&E is July 1, 2001. McLennan stated that it would be much easier for PG&E to begin the discount on July 1, 2001.
